Bring this back next Sunday for a special treat!

BIBLE STORY

Luke 18; Mark 10

A man who was blind was sitting by the road. The man's name was Bartimaeus. One day Bartimaeus heard the noisy crowd coming. "What's happening?" he asked.

"Jesus from Nazareth is coming," the people said.

"Please help me, Jesus!" Bartimaeus called out. Jesus told the people to bring Bartimaeus to Him.

Bartimaeus told Jesus that he wanted to be able to see.

"Go," said Jesus. "You believed and now you will be able to see." All at once, Bartimaeus could see.

Bartimaeus followed Jesus and thanked God. We can follow Jesus too.

FAMILY FUN

Listening to God and doing right are two important aspects of a Christian's life. As a parent, it is important to let your child know that people can listen to and hear the teachings of God through reading His Word, the Bible.

Your child needs to see you reading God's Word. It is during one of those times that your child may ask, "What are you doing?" This teachable moment will give you the opportunity to answer, "I'm reading from the Bible and learning what God wants me to do." Your child will remember your example throughout his lifetime.

Follow Me. Blindfold one person, representing Bartimaeus. Another family member can play the part of Jesus and call out his location. The blindfolded person must locate "Jesus" by listening to the voice. Other family members can help the blindfolded person find Jesus. After everyone has had a turn being Bartimaeus, talk about how it felt to be blind. How did it feel to be able to see again?
