

Assessing Your Child's Spiritual Gifts

You can help your child identify, develop and use the gifts God has given them from an early age.

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. 1 Peter 4:10 (NIV)

You may choose to complete this assessment with your child or answer the questions knowing what is true about them. You can also invite other family members to assess the child since various people may perceive different gifts.

Getting Started

Pray: Ask the Lord for wisdom and guidance before you take the assessment.

Reassure: Tell your child that this is a tool, not a test. There are no right or wrong answers.

Observe: This assessment can help you begin the process of discovering gifts and guiding your child. You may find new gifts as your child matures and encounters new experiences and opportunities to serve others.
