BIBLE STORY

From Acts 12:1-7

One night, the followers of Jesus met together. They wanted to pray for their friend Peter who was in prison.

That night an angel of the Lord came to the prison and awoke Peter. The chains fell off Peter's hands. The angel led Peter out of the prison.

Peter went to the house where the people were praying. After being let in., Peter sad to the people, "Tell the other believers what happened."

FAMILY FUN

Prayer in the lives of children is most powerfully influenced by the adults in their lives. A mother who consistently demonstrates prayer in her own life, a father who prays regularly in his children's presence, or a relative or teacher who frequently displays the practice and power of prayer in their life will provide the example from which our children will learn.

If prayer is something you model as a natural part of your life, then your children too will learn to depend on prayer as a way to talk to God.

PRAYER PARTY.

Write the names of church staff, missionaries, and Sunday School teachers on slips of paper. Place the papers folded in a container. Make a "Prayer Party" sign to hang and decide on a party snack to enjoy. Gather and take turns picking slips of paper from the container. Pray for each individual named on the papers. Thank God for people who tell others about Jesus
