

Joseph Serves God All His Life

BIBLE STORY

From Genesis 39, 41, 42, 45, 47

Joseph had been taken to live in Egypt. He was thrown into jail. He did nothing wrong but Joseph trusted God to help him.

One day the king of Egypt called for Joseph. The king had been having strange dreams. With God's help, Joseph told the king that a time was coming when crops would not grow.

"You can be in charge of my palace," said the king. So Joseph helped the people in Egypt gather and store grain.

FAMILY FUN

DAILY TALKS WITH GOD.

Use these thoughts at mealimes, bedtimes, or other times when you pray with your child this week.

Thank You, God, for helping us.

Thank You, God, for Joseph's example of serving You with his life.

God, help me to serve You by helping others.

Every Bible learning opportunity equips a child in their development of ideas and feelings toward the church, the Bible, and God. The ideas and feelings learned and experienced will help lead the child's actions, and those actions will help guide a child's life as they grows.

In the smallest of tasks lies tremendous potential for teaching your child the heart of a servant. Assist your child in understanding how they can serve God. Encourage them when they serve others at home. Build your child's confidence to assist other children who are struggling with a task or to encourage them when they are sad. Cheer your child each and every day as they grow to one of God's helpers.
