D. L. Moody: Part 3: Love Outweighs Talent

D. L. Moody seemed unimpressive on the surface. He was not known for polished speaking. He broke grammar rules. He talked too fast. He mixed metaphors and sometimes left educated listeners shaking their heads.

But children loved him. They were drawn to his heart more than his skills.

One of Moody's early biographers tells of a moment when a young girl was asked why she liked going to his Sunday School. She said, "I love Mr. Moody because he loves me."

Pastor Dave

That is the power of presence and genuine care. Moody's impact flowed from his heart, not from his ability.

*Let all that you do be done in love. – 1
Corinthians 16:14*

For our ministry:

Kids may not remember every lesson, but they remember who cared. Your love and presence speak louder than polished words or perfectly carried out plans.

For our personal lives:

Pastor Dave

Wherever God has placed you, let love lead. God uses loving hearts much more than perfect performances.

Thank you for loving kids. Your love opens the door for the gospel to be heard.

Blessings,

Dave
