

Pastor Dave

Leadership Lessons from the Wright Brothers: Part 4

Rising After Setbacks

Creek Kids Leaders,

One of the hardest scenes to read in McCullough's book was Orville's 1908 crash. The plane splintered apart. Lt. Thomas Selfridge was killed, and Orville was seriously injured. Many people assumed the brothers were finished. But after months of healing, they rebuilt the aircraft, made improvements, and returned to flying with even greater determination.

Pastor Dave

All of us face setbacks, discouragements, and moments where we feel grounded. God meets us there, and He strengthens those who choose to try again.

“Though the righteous fall seven times, they rise again.” — Proverbs 24:16

Don't let difficulties and setbacks keep you from rising again. God will provide the strength we need to continue doing his work.

Blessings,
Dave

